Dear Sir:

On reading an article to the effect that a General Juan Manuel Gaitanopoulos had attempted suicide in Miami, I recalled that I had been friends with a Russian at the United States Military Academy in 1951 and that while visiting his apartment in New York in 1953, he had mentioned that General Gaitanopoulos was in the Dominican Republic and that he was a supporter of the President of the United States Military Academy and that he was a member of the United States Military Academy in the years and that he had received the following information:

General Gaitanopoulos is a Greek-Cypriot who lives in New York

General Gaitanopoulos is a Greek-Cypriot who lives in New York

General Gaitanopoulos is a Greek-Cypriot who lives in New York

Miami Group Making Plans To Invade Cuba

MIAMI, May 25 (AP) — A group of American and Cuban exiles are making plans to invade Cuba, the Miami Herald said yesterday. The group, known as the "Miami Group," is led by a former Cuban official, Manuel Mendive, who was a member of the Cuban Revolutionary Council in Havana.

The group is now trying to organize an army to fight the Communist government of Fidel Castro, the Herald said.

Some United States members of the group are now in Miami but most Cubans signed up are in New York, the newspaper said.

Among those the Herald said signed up were:

Gregory Baker, 38, of Dothan, Ala., who said he spent five and a half years in Korea fighting Communism.

Alvin Smith, 31, of Rochester, N.Y., who said he spent five years in the Communist "labor camps" and wants to "take the life out of himself." He was an army tank specialist from 1945 to 1948.

William O'Connell, 30, who said he was born in this country but grew up in Malaysia. He was a member of a private operation in French Indochina for six years.

John Smith, 30, of Columbus, Ohio, who said he spent three years in the army at Fort Belvoir, and hopes to get a better job in Cuba.

Charles Smith, 31, of Rochester, N.Y., who said he always wanted to be in the army but was too old.

Enrique Salgado Cruz, 31, of Cuba's Oriente Province, who was a soldier in the Batista army during the war.

Kenneth Smith, 31, of Boston, Mass., who said he was a paratrooper in the United States Army for five years and has no immediate family. He said he is the leader of the American group headed for Cuba.
